This policy applies to all Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association employees.

Background

Why is Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association subject to FOISA and EIR?

Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association is subject to both FOISA and EIR by virtue of the: Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (Designation of Persons as Scottish Public Authorities) Order 2019 (the "Order").

The Order came into effect on 11 November 2019 and brought all Registered Social Landlords ("RSLs") and certain RSL subsidiaries under the scope of FOISA and the EIR.

What is subject to FOISA and EIR?

However, in accordance with the terms of the Order, not everything that Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association does is subject to FOISA and EIR. Instead, Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association is only subject to these regimes in respect of certain functions, namely 'housing services' (as defined in s.165 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2010) which Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association conducts – subject to some restrictions. Looking at the definition of 'housing services and the restrictions which are set out in the Order the following functions carried out by Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association are covered by FOISA and EIR:

- the prevention and alleviation of homelessness
- the management of social housing accommodation; and
- the supply of information to the Scottish Housing Regulator (SHR) by an RSL or a connected body (i.e., a subsidiary) in relation to its financial wellbeing and standards of governance.

What is the difference between FOISA and EIR?

EIR provides a right of access to 'Environmental Information' held by Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association. Environmental Information has a very wide definition which is set out in Regulations. Where a request under FOISA is received for Environmental Information, it should be processed in accordance with EIR.

Whilst the obligations under FOISA and EIR are similar – there are some key differences that employees must be aware of when dealing with requests for information. Further guidance on the differences are available on SIC's website.

People have the right to request information from Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association. Where the information requested is within the scope of the Order and Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association holds that information it must release the information unless an exemption (under FOISA), or an exception (under EIR) applies. Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association shall, when responding to requests for information from individuals, follow the Section 60 Code of Practice and any relevant guidance produced by SIC.

Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association. will aim to respond to information requests promptly, and in any event, within 20 working days of receiving the request (except in some circumstances under EIR where Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association is entitled to extend the timescale for responding by an additional 20 working days).

Where Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association is providing an individual with the information they have requested they will, in so far as is reasonable to do so, provide information in the format that the individual has requested and will adhere to any duties under the Equality Act 2010. Where Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association is refusing to provide information to individuals it will clearly explain to said individual what provision in FOISA or EIR allows Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association to withhold that information and why Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association believes that provision applies (including, where required, an explanation of how Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association has carried out the Public Interest Test).

Where Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association. is asked to provide information which it does not hold, but Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association knows that another Scottish Public Authority does hold the requested information, Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association shall provide contact details of said Authority to the individual requesting the information and explain that the individual may wish to request the information from that Scottish Public Authority. Where a request is being handled under EIR and these circumstances apply Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association shall offer to transfer the individual's request to the other Scottish Public Authority.

Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association may choose to charge for fulfilling information requests received from individuals. Any charges made by Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association. shall be made in accordance with:

- for requests being handled under EIR: the Schedule of Charges in our FOISA Policy
Any fee charged by Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association. will be reasonable and will not exceed the costs to Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association of providing requested information.

Responding to Requests for Review

Where someone has requested information from Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association. and:

- Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association has failed to respond to the request within the 20-working day deadline (or extended deadline in respect of certain requests made under EIR); or
- the person requesting the information is unhappy with the response to the request (for example where information has been withheld under one of the exemptions or exceptions available under FOISA/EIR)

then they have the right to request that Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association reviews the response to their request to determine whether or not the provisions of FOISA or EIR have been followed.

Where Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association. performs a review and determines that a response to a request is not in accordance with FOISA or EIR Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association will take immediate steps to rectify this (which could, for example, include releasing information which was previously withheld).

Where Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association. performs a review and determines that a response to a request is in accordance with FOISA or EIR then Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association will notify the individual who asked for a review as quickly as possible.

In any event Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association will handle all requests for review in accordance with the timescales set out in FOISA and EIR.

Where an individual is unhappy with the response to their review request, they may appeal to SIC. If an appeal is made by SIC and a decision handed down by them both Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association and the individual in question have a right to appeal to the courts on a point of law.

The type of information which may be requested can be paper or electronic and may include draft documents, agendas, minutes, emails, diaries, or handwritten notes.

If information has been requested but is not held, Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association will inform the applicant of this. In exceptional cases Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association may not be able to either confirm or deny if the information requested is held, for example where the request is for personal information of a person other than the requester.

If a request is unclear, Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association will ask for clarification as soon as possible to enable us to proceed with considering the request. Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association will provide advice and assistance to help people make requests under the FOISA. We will aim to acknowledge requests for information within five working days of receipt. 7. Statistics

Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association must submit statistical reports to the Scottish Information Commissioner on a quarterly basis. The reports include the numbers of requests received under FOISA, EIR and UK GDPR legislation, whether any exemptions were used and whether any reviews were carried out.

8. Exemptions

The FOISA does not entitle applicants to be given all information held by Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association the FOISA sets out exemptions from the right of access to information.

There are two kinds of exemptions:

- Absolute exemptions – the right to information is completely over-ridden by the exemption
- Non-absolute exemptions – where an exemption may be applied, but Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association must decide whether it serves the interests of the public better to disclose the information than to withhold it. This is known as the public interest test.

Although there might be occasions when it is appropriate to rely on an exemption, provision of information is an integral part of Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association's work.

Therefore, we aim to disclose as much information as possible and rely on exemptions only in limited circumstances.

Where a request is refused, a refusal notice must be issued setting out the section of FOISA being relied upon and in most instances explaining the reasons for the refusal, including the details of any public interest and prejudice tests that have been applied. The refusal notice will also outline the review procedure with relevant details and inform the requester of their right to complain to the Information Commissioner.

8.1 Vexatious requests

While we are committed to providing information, we sometimes receive requests which can be deemed 'vexatious.

In determining whether a request may be vexatious we will consider whether meeting the request is likely to cause a disproportionate or unjustifiable level of distress, disruption, or irritation. Where we believe the request to be vexatious, we will issue a refusal notice unless we have already done so in response to an earlier vexatious or repeated request from the same individual, and it would be unreasonable to issue another one.

8.2 Repeated requests

Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association can refuse requests if they are repeated within a reasonable timescale from the previous request, whether or not they are also vexatious.

8.3 Cost Limit is Exceeded

Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association reserves the right to refuse requests where the cost of providing the information would exceed the statutory cost limit. This limit is currently £600.

The requester cannot be charged for the first £100 it costs to find and provide the information. Therefore, if the cost of providing the information is less than £100, the requester will receive it free of any charges.

If the cost is over £100 and up to and including £600, we can charge the requester 10% of the cost of providing the information (bearing in mind, the first £100 is free) so the maximum we could charge would be £50, i.e., 10% of the remaining £500 if the cost to us was £600.

If the total cost to us is going to be over £600, we can refuse the request. However, we will advise on how the cost could be reduced so that the request could be fulfilled.

The fees regulations allow us to charge for "projected costs", "whether direct or indirect, which Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association reasonably estimates we are likely to incur in locating, retrieving, and providing the information". Costs which might be charged include estimates of the staff time to collect information from our archive, the cost of postage to deliver the information to the requester or the cost of photocopying in order to provide it. We cannot, however, charge for the time and resources used to determine whether we actually hold the information e.g., through searches of catalogues and records holdings. We also cannot charge for any costs incurred in deciding whether the information can be released.

8.4 Other Exemptions

There are other exemptions that Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association might apply to information being released and these include:

- Information otherwise accessible

9. Complaints

Anyone who has made a request for information to Kingsridge Cleddans Housing Association under the FOISA is entitled to request an internal review if they are unhappy with the way their request has been handled.

Internal reviews will be carried out by a DPO/staff member who was not involved with the original decision.

A request for review may be about:

- a decision not to give them some or all of the information
- how an exemption has been applied
- how the request was handled (e.g., failing to reply to them within the time limit allowed)
